

The GREEN LA Coalition presents

THE FEDERAL STIMULUS

What It Means for Los Angeles and the Environment

Friday, April 3 | 10:00 am - 1:30 pm

Please arrive 15 minutes early to register. Program will begin promptly at 10:00 am.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club (The Ballroom), 431 W. 7th St., Downtown L.A.

On February 17, President Obama signed H.R. 1, The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. At 1,073 pages, the $787 billion recovery package seeks to provide jobs for 400,000 men and women. The California Budget Project estimates the state and its residents will receive $50.7 billion from the stimulus.

Keynote Speakers

Nancy Sutley

Chair, White House Council on Environmental Quality

Honorable V. Manuel Perez

Chair, Assembly Stimulus, Economic Recovery and Jobs (SERJ) Task Force

The Stimulus Package & Los Angeles:

Jim Clarke, Federal Legislative Deputy, Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa

Panel: How will The Funds Get Spent in California?

ENERGY PROGRAMS: Joseph Avila, Los Angeles Department of Water and Power

HOUSING IMPROVEMENTS: Ramon Mendez, Enterprise Community Partners

OPEN SPACE: Robert Garcia, The City Project

SCHOOL RETROFITS: Randy Britt, LA Unified School District

TRANSPORTATION: Erin Steva, California Public Interest Research Group

WATER: Charlotte Hodde, Planning and Conservation League

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT: Jane Paul, GREEN LA Coalition

Engage the Process: The Role of NGO's and CBO's in Greening, Directing and Accessing the Projects:

Andy Lipkis, TreePeople

The workshop will provide an overview of the federal stimulus funding, what programs are still open to influence, and how to prepare today.

RSVP required | Click here, or call Shalimar at 310-453-3611

Public Transportation: Pershing Square Metro Station / Parking: $4.50 at Olive Park Garage (adjoining bldg)